

The new venue for the 2018 Central PA Handbell Festival is the Lebanon Area Evangelical Free Church in Jonestown, PA,

<http://www.lebefree.org/im-new/service-times--directions>. This facility actually meets all the criteria as far as ample parking, ease of movement on one level, av equipment, size of ringing area, ample seating and restrooms, food service with separate dining area, clinician platform, early set up Friday evening option and cost effectiveness. A reminder that the Festival takes place on Saturday, March 10th, 2018 from 8am to 5pm and that the clinician will be Kimberlee Strepka

<http://www.motionlanguage.com/>. If all goes as planned with this location, we can look at making this the permanent location for future festivals.

At this time I am estimating the cost per ringer to be $20.00 which will cover the cost of the facility, the clinician, breakfast, two snack breaks and accommodate those who must brown bag lunch due to dietary restrictions. With a deli lunch and soup and salad option I am estimating the cost per ringer to be $25. Hopefully by communicating the estimated cost you can start budgeting for the event so you can send your registration fee in early 2018.

Saturday March 10th, 2018 schedule will look something like this.

8:00 - 8:45 Set up at LAEFC

8:45 - 9:00 Introductions/Announcements

9:00 - 10:30 Session 1

10:30 - 11:00 Snack/Bathroom Break

11:00 - 12:30 Session 2

12:30 - 1:30 Lunch/Bathroom Break

1:30 - 3:00 Session 3

3:00 - 3:30 Bathroom Break/Change (Doors Open at 3pm)

3:30 - 4:15 Visitor Program

4:15 - 5:00 Pack up and departure

At this time we have about 12 spaces left for choirs to participate. Please complete the attached form and return it to me ASAP either by email or snail mail. No registration fee is to be included at this time. This is simply an indication of how many may be attending the festival so I have a general idea of how many spots are still available on the ringing floor. Please don't forget to connect with the festival on Facebook
